

Home Requirements for Home Occupation

Home occupations are subject to the following limitations:

No person other than members of the family residing on the premises shall be engaged in such occupation.

The use of the dwelling unit for the home occupation shall be clearly incidental and subordinate to its use for residential purposes by its occupants, and not more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the floor area of the dwelling unit shall be used in conduct of the home occupation.

There shall be no change in the outside appearance of the building or, premises, or other visible evidence of the conduct of such home occupation other than one sign, not exceeding one (1) square foot in area non-illuminated and mounted flat against the wall of the principal building.

No home occupation shall be conducted in any accessory building.

No traffic shall be generated by such home occupation in greater volumes than would normally be expected in a residential neighborhood, and any need for parking generated by the conduct of such home occupation shall be met off the street and other than in a required front yard.

No equipment or process shall be used in such home occupation which creates noise, vibration, glare, fumes, odors, electrical interference detectable to the normal senses of the lot, if the occupation is conducted in a single-family residence, or outside the dwelling unit if conducted in other than a single-family residence. In the case of electrical interference, no equipment or process shall be used which creates visual or audible interference in any radio or television receivers off the premises, or causes fluctuations in line voltage off the premises.
