

RESIDENTIAL TEMPORARY POWER PROCEDURE

Temporary Power Deposit and Inspection Fee: A permit shall be required to provide temporary power to an existing structure. When an inspection is requested for the purpose of issuing a permit for temporary power, a permit fee of $26.00 shall be paid by the contractor and or owner requesting such preliminary inspection. If the temporary power connection is not approved, a $26.00 reinspection fee shall be charged for each subsequent preliminary inspection for such purpose.

Additionally, a deposit of $200.00 shall be made prior to permitting temporary power, which shall be refunded upon completion of the final inspection. No person shall occupy any structure to which power is supplied by a temporary power service. Any person who occupies a structure to which power is supplied by a temporary power service shall, in addition to any other penalties provided for by this ordinance forfeit the $200.00 deposit.

STEPS FOR TEMPORARY POWER SERVICE

1. Pay $26.00 preliminary inspection fee
2. Pay the $200.00 temporary power service deposit. This may be check or cash. All monies used shall be deposited into the City of Richland general fund account. When the occupancy inspection is approved, issuance of the refund will have to be approved by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen at the following board meeting (this may take up to two weeks)
3. Set up a time for preliminary inspection and receive approval
4. In order to return your deposit, you will have to have your final occupancy inspection approved
5. If for any reason any person occupies a structure to which power is supplied by temporary service, the owner or contractor shall, in addition to any other penalties provided for by the ordinance, shall forfeit the $200.00 deposit
6. If for any reason the repairs can't be completed within an 8-week period, you must notify the Public Works Department by the 8th week or forfeit the $200.00 deposit. Only one 8-week extension is permitted by writing a new check for the amount of $200.00 or by paying $200.00 in cash
